Push

Artist: ARMOURS

Music & lyrics: Håkan Ängquist

Oh please unfold upon that bed
With this heart of your's full to the brim
You feel the change?
The air around your skin
Holding hands and holding heads
High enough to breath air in
I promise change
I'll never mention him

Push
Pull
I promise change
I'll never mention him

Two truths are told upon that bed
With this hardened voice I get my will
You feel the change pace as time stand still
I understand about the threads
Why it hurts and why it kills
I promise change
I'll end it all with him

Push
I promise change
I'll end it all with him
