Confront

Artist: ARMOURS
Music & lyrics: Håkan Ängquist

By the silence yet online
I figured out you're fading out Couldn't even take the time to dial the number, say goodbye

With a song I will confront you
With a song I will confront you

Now it's time, today's the day to close it down and break it up in two Hasta la victoria siempre
After this there will be something new

With this song I will vacate you
With this song I will vacate you
With this song I'm vacating you
With this song I'm vacating you
