Northern Trails – Feathers

About the release

Feathers is the first single in a series of releases from Northern Trails in the spring / summer of 2026. It is an alternative pop ballad in the style of Travis, Keane or R.E.M., but was written largely inspired by the music of indie folk singer-songwriter Gregory Alan Isakov.

Recorded live in the band's rehearsal studio in Uppsala — with additional tracking in Thomas' basement — the song captures the fragile excitement of daring to fall in love. Raw, warm and emotionally driven, the song balances intimate vulnerability with the restless feeling of stepping into something new before you know where it might lead.

Recorded and produced by Northern Trails.
Mixed and mastered by Martin Antonsson.
Cover photo by Cesar La Rosa.
Cover typography by Håkan Ängquist.

Feathers is out May 20, 2026 on Tintonic Music.

About Northern Trails

Northern Trails make warm, melody-first guitar pop that feels like it was always there — somewhere between the emotional depth of R.E.M.'s Automatic for the People, the sweeping melodic instincts of Keane, and the quiet grandeur of early Coldplay. Rooted in the 90s indie tradition, they make music for people who still believe in the power of a well-written song.

The band came together in Uppsala, Sweden in May 2022, when Christer Tinnerholm and Thomas Isberg decided it was time to spend a little less time on ultra running and a little more on pop music. Joined by Per Larsson and Ulf Eklund, they recorded Hearts Went Frozen EP and released it late 2023. Thomas Strömbom heard the single AQ on Swedish radio and asked if the band needed a keyboard player. Northern Trails has performed as a quintet ever since.

Since then the band has built a steady catalogue of singles and a growing reputation on the Swedish live circuit. In spring/summer 2026 they return with a run of new singles and a new EP.
