Northern Trails – Fourth of July

About the release

With this third single of the year Northern Trails return to their Americana roots with an acoustically driven track featuring powerfully stacked vocals and racing energetic drums.

Fourth of July is probably the most romantic song from Northern Trails by the time of writing. It was written as the story of an old man brought up to trust noone and to reject the concept of love. As he wakes up from a car accident, he realizes (with a little help) that he has spent his life in loneliness.

The cover art for Fourth of July was made by Uppsala artist Fredrik Hardenborg. Fredrik drew inspiration to this piece from the American painter Edward Hopper, who himself explored loneliness and solitude in his work.

About Northern Trails

Northern Trails make warm, melody-first guitar pop that feels like it was always there — somewhere between the emotional depth of R.E.M.'s Automatic for the People, the sweeping melodic instincts of Keane, and the quiet grandeur of early Coldplay. Rooted in the 90s indie tradition, they make music for people who still believe in the power of a well-written song.

The band came together in Uppsala, Sweden in May 2022, when Christer Tinnerholm and Thomas Isberg decided it was time to spend a little less time on ultra running and a little more on pop music. Joined by Per Larsson and Ulf Eklund, they recorded Hearts Went Frozen EP and released it late 2023. Thomas Strömbom heard the single AQ on Swedish radio and asked if the band needed a keyboard player. Northern Trails has performed as a quintet ever since.

Since then the band has built a steady catalogue of singles and a growing reputation on the Swedish live circuit. In spring/summer 2026 they return with a run of new singles and a new EP.
