Feathers

Artist: Northern Trails
Music & lyrics: Thomas Isberg

I saw you dance in the lake
Strong yet soft like a pillow
We were just hanging out
But your eyes asked me to stay close
Lay low, but stay close
Wait for... Mmm

One step over the edge and we could fall in
We could fall in the lake
Then safe on the shore line
We could fall in love for the last time

Words like feathers in wind
Some got trapped on my body
Some stuck deeper within,
As we shared thoughts that were new
Running. Mmm

One step over the edge and we could fall in
We could fall in the lake
Then safe on the shore line
We could fall in love for the last time

Words like feathers in wind
Some got trapped on my body
Some stuck deeper within,
As we shared thoughts that were new
Running. Mmm

One step over the edge and we could fall in
We could fall in the lake
Then safe on the shore line

We could fall in love for the last time
