Ride the Wing

Artist: Northern Trails

Music & lyrics: Thomas Isberg

Stepping into a strange world to try something new Still regret how we left things between me and you
I was hurt and mistook an old friend for a flirt
No flight back home but one thing I know

I'd ride on the wing for you
Yes I would cling on through the clouds, lit by the sun
Dreaming along
I'd fight the wind for you
Yes I would head for a storm
Cross through a wall
You are the one

We fell down through a black hole of secret desires
Woke in a fog and came alive
I promise you, if the rain drops travel the sky
this trash of a man is coming home

I'd ride on the wing for you
Yes I would cling on through the clouds, lit by the sun
Dreaming along
I'd fight the wind for you
Yes I would head for a storm
Cross through a wall
You are the one

I was hurt and mistook an old friend for a flirt
No flight back home but one thing I know
I promise you, if the rain drops travel the sky

this trash of a man is coming home

I'd ride on the wing for you
Yes I would cling on through the clouds, lit by the sun
Dreaming along
I'd fight the wind for you
Yes I would head for a storm
